

Please don't consider weakening Indiana Privacy Law by approving these banking institutions request. Having the phone not ringing during the dinner hour has become so wonderful with the peace and quiet. I love not having to be interrupted by someone trying to sell me a new credit card or mortgage. Let the home owner control their calls rather than solicitors.